Defining Consent

State	How is Consent Defined?	Does the definition require "freely given consent" or "affirmative consent"?
Alabama	Consent has been interpreted to mean "acquiescence or compliance [with the proposition of another]." Ex parte Gordon, 706 So. 2d 1160, 1163 (Ala. 1997). Lack of consent results from: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. forcible compulsion; or 2. being incapable of consent. Ala. Code § 13A-6-70(b). In addition, "Consent to engage in sexual intercourse, sodomy, sexual acts, or sexual contact may be communicated by words or actions. The existence of a current or previous marital, dating, social, or sexual relationship with the defendant is not sufficient to constitute consent. Evidence that the victim suggested, requested, or otherwise communicated to the defendant that the defendant use a condom or other birth control device or sexually transmitted disease protection, without additional evidence of consent, is not sufficient to constitute consent." Ala. Code § 13A-6-70(d). "Forcible compulsion" means use or threatened use, whether express or implied, of physical force, violence, confinement, restraint, physical injury, or death to the threatened person or to another person. Factors to be considered in determining an implied threat include, but are not limited to, the respective ages and sizes of the victim and the accused; the respective mental and physical conditions of the victim and the accused; the atmosphere and physical setting in which the incident was alleged to have taken place; the extent to which the accused may have been in a position of authority, domination, or custodial control over the victim; or whether the victim was under duress. Forcible compulsion does not require proof of resistance by the victim. Ala. Code § 13A-6-60(1). Existence of forcible compulsion is conclusive presumptive evidence of lack of consent, but lack of consent can also exist without forcible compulsion Ex parte Gordon, 706 So.2d 1160, 1163 (Ala.1997).	No. Ala. Code § 13A-6-70.
Alaska	"Without consent" means that, under the totality of the circumstances surrounding the offense, there was not a freely given, reversible agreement specific to the conduct at issue; in this paragraph, "freely given" means agreement to cooperate in the act was positively expressed by word or action. Alaska Stat. § 11.41.470(10). The phrase "without consent" in statute refers to a particular type of unwanted sexual activity: unwanted sexual activity that is coerced by force or the threat of force. Inga v. State, 440 P.3d 345, 349 (Alaska Ct. App. 2019).	Yes. Alaska Stat. § 11.41.470(10).
Arizona	"Without consent" includes any of the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. the victim is coerced by the immediate use or threatened use of force against a person or property; 2. the victim is incapable of consent by reason of mental disorder, mental defect, drugs, alcohol, sleep or any other similar impairment of cognition and such condition is known or should have reasonably been known to the defendant (see definition of "mental defect" below); 3. the victim is intentionally deceived as to the nature of the act; or 4. the victim is intentionally deceived to erroneously believe that the person is the victim's spouse. Arizona Revised Statute § 13-1401(A)(7).	No.
Arkansas	There is a lack of consent if a person engages in a sexual act with another person by forcible compulsion or with a person who is incapable of consent because he or she is physically helpless, mentally defective or mentally incapacitated, or because of a victim's age. Arkansas Code §§ 5-14-103; 5-14-125. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • "Forcible compulsion" means physical force or a threat, express or implied, of death or physical injury to or kidnapping of any person. Arkansas Code § 5-14-101(3). • "Mentally defective" means that a person suffers from a mental disease or defect that renders the person: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • incapable of understanding the nature and consequences of a sexual act; or • unaware a sexual act is occurring. • Note: a determination that a person is mentally defective shall not be based solely on the person's IQ. Arkansas Code § 5-14-101(5). • "Mentally incapacitated" means that a person is temporarily incapable of appreciating or controlling the person's conduct as a result of the influence of a controlled or intoxicating substance: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • administered to the person without the person's consent; or • that renders the person unaware a sexual act is occurring. Arkansas Code § 5-14-101(6). • "Physically helpless" means that a person is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • unconscious; • physically unable to communicate a lack of consent; or • rendered unaware that a sexual act is occurring. Arkansas Code § 5-14-101(8). • A nursing home patient was unable to communicate lack of consent and, thus, was "physically helpless" within meaning of statute for attempted rape purposes; victim was blind, unable to speak, and confined to bed or wheelchair, and victim could only grunt, raise her hand, and shake her head from side to side to communicate. Dabney v. State, 1996, 930 S.W.2d 360, 326 Ark. 382. • Note: When criminality of conduct depends on a victim's being incapable of consent because he or she is mentally defective or mentally incapacitated, it is an affirmative defense that the actor reasonably believed that the victim was capable of consent. Arkansas Code § 5-14-102(e). The existence of forcible compulsion in a rape case does not depend on the quantum of force that is applied but rather on whether the act is consummated against the victim's will. Hillman v. State, 569 S.W.3d 372 (Arkansas 2019).	No.
California	"Consent" is defined to mean positive cooperation in act or attitude pursuant to the exercise of free will. The person must act freely and voluntarily and have knowledge of the nature of the act or transaction involved. California Penal Code § 261.6.	Yes. California Penal Code § 261.6.
Colorado	"Consent" means cooperation in act or attitude pursuant to an exercise of free will and with knowledge of the nature of the act. A current or previous relationship is not sufficient to constitute consent. Submission under the influence of fear does not constitute consent. Colorado Revised Statutes Annotated § 18-3-401(1.5).	No.
Connecticut	Lack of consent to sexual activity exists where: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. the accused compels the victim to engage in sexual activity by the use or threat of force against the victim (or against a third person); 2. the victim is mentally incapacitated or impaired because of mental disability or disease to the extent that the person is unable to consent to sexual activity; or 3. the victim is physically helpless. Connecticut General Statutes Annotated §§ 53a-65; 53a-70; 53a-71; 53a-72a; 53a-73a. "Mentally incapacitated" means that a person is rendered temporarily incapable of appraising or controlling such person's conduct owing to the influence of a drug or intoxicating substance administered to such person without such person's consent, or owing to any other act committed upon such person without such person's consent. Connecticut General Statutes Annotated § 53a-65(5). "Impaired because of mental disability or disease" means that a person suffers from a mental disability or disease which renders such person incapable of appraising the nature of such person's conduct. Connecticut General Statutes Annotated § 53a-65(4). "Physically helpless" means that a person is unconscious or for any other reason is physically unable to resist an act of sexual intercourse or sexual contact or to communicate unwillingness to an act of sexual intercourse or sexual contact. Connecticut General Statutes Annotated § 53a-65(6).	No.

Delaware	“Without consent” means any of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •The defendant compelled the victim to submit by an act of coercion or by force, by gesture, or by threat of death, physical injury, pain or kidnapping to be inflicted upon the victim or a third party, or by any other means which would compel a reasonable person under the circumstances to submit. The victim need resist only to the extent that it is reasonably necessary to make the victim’s refusal to consent known to the defendant, unless such resistance would be futile or foolhardy. •The defendant knew the victim was unconscious, asleep or otherwise unaware that a sexual act was being performed. •The defendant knew the victim suffered from a cognitive disability, mental illness or mental defect which rendered the victim incapable of appraising the nature of the sexual conduct or incapable of consenting. •Where the defendant is a health professional, or a minister, priest, rabbi or other member of a religious organization engaged in pastoral counseling, the commission of acts of sexual contact, sexual penetration or sexual intercourse by such person shall be deemed to be without consent of the victim where such acts are committed under the guise of providing professional diagnosis, counseling or treatment and where at the times of such acts the victim reasonably believed the acts were for medically or professionally appropriate diagnosis, counseling or treatment, such that resistance by the victim could not reasonably have been manifested. •The defendant had substantially impaired the victim’s power to appraise or control the victim’s own conduct by administering or employing without the other person’s knowledge or against the other person’s will, drugs, intoxicants or other means for the purpose of preventing resistance. Note: “health professional” includes all individuals who are licensed or who hold themselves out to be licensed or who otherwise provide professional physical or mental health services, diagnosis, treatment or counseling and shall include, but not be limited to, doctors of medicine and osteopathy, dentists, nurses, physical therapists, chiropractors, psychologists, social workers, medical technicians, mental health counselors, substance abuse counselors, marriage and family counselors or therapists and hypnotherapists. Note: “cognitive disability” means a developmental disability that substantially impairs an individual’s cognitive abilities including, but not limited to, delirium, dementia and other organic brain disorders for which there is an identifiable pathologic condition, as well as nonorganic brain disorders commonly called functional disorders. “Cognitive disability” also includes conditions of mental retardation, severe cerebral palsy, and any other condition found to be closely related to mental retardation because such condition results in the impairment of general intellectual functioning or adaptive behavior similar to that of persons who have been diagnosed with mental retardation, or such condition requires treatment and services similar to those required for persons who have been diagnosed with mental retardation. 11 Delaware Code § 761.	No.
District of Columbia	“Consent” means words or overt actions indicating a freely given agreement to the sexual act or contact in question. Lack of verbal or physical resistance or submission by the victim, resulting from the use of force, threats, or coercion by the defendant shall not constitute consent. D.C. Code § 22-3001(4). “Force” means the use or threatened use of a weapon; the use of such physical strength or violence as is sufficient to overcome, restrain, or injure a person; or the use of a threat of harm sufficient to coerce or compel submission by the victim. D.C. Code § 22-3001(5).	Yes. Consent to the sexual act or contact in question must be freely given agreement. D.C. Code § 22-3001(4).
Florida	“Consent” means intelligent, knowing, and voluntary consent and does not include coerced submission. “Consent” shall not be deemed or construed to mean the failure by the alleged victim to offer physical resistance to the offender. Florida Statutes § 794.011(1)(a).	Yes – the statute requires that consent be “voluntary”. Florida Statutes § 794.011(1)(a).
Georgia	The State of Georgia does not define consent in reference to sexual activity. The offense of rape occurs when it is against “a female forcibly and against her will” or “a female who is less than ten years of age”. Georgia Code § 16-6-1. The phrase “against her will” means without consent. Wightman v. State, 289 Ga.App. 225, 656 S.E.2d 563 (2008).	No.
Guam	Consent means words or overt actions by a person indicating a freely given present agreement to perform a particular sexual act with the actor. Consent does not mean the existence of a prior or current social relationship between the actor and the victim or that the victim failed to resist a particular sexual act. 9 G.C.A. § 25.10(a)(2). A person who is mentally incapacitated or physically helpless as defined by the Guam statute cannot consent to a sexual act. 9 G.C.A. § 25.10(a)(2)(A). Corroboration of the victim’s testimony is not required to show lack of consent. 9 G.C.A. § 25.10 (a)(2)(B). A victim need not resist the actor for a proper prosecution. 9 G.C.A. § 25.45.	Yes – “consent” means words or overt actions by a person indicating a freely given present agreement to perform a particular sexual act with the actor. 9 G.C.A. § 25.10(a)(2).
Hawaii	Consent is not defined by statute. However, Hawaii law provides that a person commits a sex crime if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •the person knowingly subjects another person to a sexual act by compulsion; or •the person knowingly subjects to a sexual act another person who is mentally defective, mentally incapacitated, or physically helpless. HRS §§ 707-730; 707-731; 707-732. “Compulsion” means absence of consent, or a threat, express or implied, that places a person in fear of public humiliation, property damage, or financial loss. HRS § 707-700. “Mentally defective” means a person suffering from a disease, disorder, or defect which renders the person incapable of appraising the nature of the person’s conduct. HRS § 707-700. “Mentally incapacitated” means a person rendered temporarily incapable of appraising or controlling the person’s conduct as a result of the influence of a substance administered to the person without the person’s consent. HRS § 707-700. “Physically helpless” means a person who is unconscious or for any other reason physically unable to communicate unwillingness to an act. HRS § 707-700. See also: “Consent signifies voluntary agreement or concurrence . . . [c]onsent may be express or implied.” State v. Adams, 10 Haw. App. 593, 605, 880 P.2d 226, 234 (1994). Evidence that victim rebuffed offender’s sexual advances by repeatedly telling offender to stop, attempting to pull away, and telling offender that she did not want to be touched was sufficient to establish absence of consent. State v. Jackson, 81 Haw. 39, 46, 912 P.2d 71, 78 (1996).	Not in statute, though please see State v. Adams above for more information.
Idaho	Consent is not specifically defined. However, Idaho law references consent in its definition of certain circumstances that constitute “rape”. Rape is defined as “the penetration, however slight, of the oral, anal or vaginal opening with a penis” accomplished under any one of the following circumstances: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •the victim is under the age of sixteen and the perpetrator is eighteen years of age or older, and the victim is not lawfully married to the perpetrator; •the victim is sixteen or seventeen years of age and the perpetrator is three years or more older than the victim, and the victim is not lawfully married to the perpetrator; •the victim is incapable, through any unsoundness of mind, due to any cause, including, but not limited to, mental illness, mental disability or developmental disability, whether temporary or permanent, of giving legal consent •the victim resists but the resistance is overcome by force or violence; •the victim is prevented from resistance by the infliction, attempted infliction, or threatened infliction of bodily harm, accompanied by apparent power of execution, or is unable to resist due to any intoxicating, narcotic, or anesthetic substance •the victim is prevented from resistance due to an objectively reasonable belief that resistance would be futile or that resistance would result in force or violence beyond that necessary to accomplish the prohibited contact; •the victim is at the time unconscious of the nature of the act (“unconscious of the nature of the act” means incapable of resisting because the victim was unconscious or asleep, or was not aware, knowing, perceiving, or cognizant that the act occurred •the victim submits under the belief that the person committing the act is the victim’s spouse or someone other than the accused, and the belief is induced by artifice, pretense or concealment practiced by the accused with intent to induce such belief; •the victim submits under the belief, instilled by the actor, that if the victim does not submit, the actor will cause physical harm to some person in the future, cause damage to property, engage in other conduct constituting a crime, accuse any person of a crime or cause criminal charges to be instituted against the victim, or expose a secret or publicize an asserted fact, whether true or false, tending to subject any person to hatred, contempt or ridicule. Idaho Statutes § 18-6101.	No.

Illinois	“Consent” means a freely given agreement to the act of sexual penetration or sexual conduct in question. Lack of verbal or physical resistance or submission by the victim resulting from the use of force or threat of force by the accused shall not constitute consent. The manner of dress of the victim at the time of the offense shall not constitute consent. 720 ILCS 5/11-0.1. A person who initially consents to sexual penetration or sexual conduct is not deemed to have consented to any sexual penetration or sexual conduct that occurs after he or she withdraws consent during the course of that sexual penetration or sexual conduct. 720 ILCS 5/11-1.70. “The focus is on what the defendant knew or reasonably should have known regarding the victim’s willingness or ability to give knowing consent.” People v. Roldan, 2015 IL App (1st) 131962, ¶ 19. “Unable to give knowing consent” includes when the accused administers any intoxicating or anesthetic substance, or any controlled substance causing the victim to become unconscious of the nature of the act and this condition was known, or reasonably should have been known by the accused. “Unable to give knowing consent” also includes when the victim has taken an intoxicating substance or any controlled substance causing the victim to become unconscious of the nature of the act, and this condition was known or reasonably should have been known by the accused, but the accused did not provide or administer the intoxicating substance. As used in this paragraph, “unconscious of the nature of the act” means incapable of resisting because the victim meets any one of the following conditions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. was unconscious or asleep; 2. was not aware, knowing, perceiving, or cognizant that the act occurred; 3. was not aware, knowing, perceiving, or cognizant of the essential characteristics of the act due to the perpetrator’s fraud in fact; or 4. was not aware, knowing, perceiving, or cognizant of the essential characteristics of the act due to the perpetrator’s fraudulent representation that the sexual penetration served a professional purpose when it served no professional purpose. 720 ILCS 5/11-0.1. A victim is presumed “unable to give knowing consent” when the victim: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. is committed to the care and custody or supervision of the Illinois Department of Corrections (IDOC) and the accused is an employee or volunteer who is not married to the victim who knows or reasonably should know that the victim is committed to the care and custody or supervision of such department; 2. is committed to or placed with the Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS) and in residential care, and the accused employee is not married to the victim, and knows or reasonably should know that the victim is committed to or placed with DCFS and in residential care; 3. is a client or patient and the accused is a health care provider or mental health care provider and the sexual conduct or sexual penetration occurs during a treatment session, consultation, interview, or examination; 4. is a resident or inpatient of a residential facility and the accused is an employee of the facility who is not married to such resident or inpatient who provides direct care services, case management services, medical or other clinical services, habilitative services or direct supervision of the residents in the facility in which the resident resides; or an officer or other employee, consultant, contractor or volunteer of the residential facility, who knows or reasonably should know that the person is a resident of such facility; or 5. is detained or otherwise in the custody of a police officer, peace officer, or other law enforcement official who: (i) is detaining or maintaining custody of such person; or (ii) knows, or reasonably should know, that at the time of the offense, such person was detained or in custody and the police officer, peace officer, or other law enforcement official is not married to such detainee. 720 ILCS 5/11-0.1. 	Yes, it requires “freely given agreement” to the act of sexual penetration or sexual conduct in question. 720 ILCS 5/11-0.1.
Indiana	Consent is not specifically defined under the current law. However, Indiana law provides that a person commits a sex crime if: (1) the victim is compelled by force or imminent threat of force; (2) the victim is unaware that the sexual intercourse or other sexual conduct is occurring; (3) the victim is so mentally disabled or deficient that consent to sexual intercourse or other sexual conduct cannot be given; or (4) the person disregarded the victim’s attempts to physically, verbally, or by other visible conduct refuse the person’s acts. IC §§ 35-42-4-1; 35-42-4-8. Capacity to consent presupposes an intelligence capable of understanding the act, its nature, and possible consequences. Stafford v. State, 455 N.E.2d 402, 406 (Ind. Ct. App. 1983). Consent of a woman from fear of personal violence is void. Parrett v. State, 200 Ind. 7, 159 N.E. 755, 760 (1928).	No.
Iowa	Consent is not specifically defined. However, Iowa law defines “sexual abuse” as any sex act between persons where: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the sexual act is done by force or against the will of the other (if the consent or acquiescence of the victim is procured by threats of violence toward any person or if the act is done while the other is under the influence of a drug inducing sleep or is otherwise in a state of unconsciousness, the act is done against the will of the other); or • the victim is suffering from a mental defect or incapacity which precludes giving consent, or lacks the mental capacity to know the right and wrong of conduct in sexual matters; or • the other person is a child. I.C.A. § 709.1. The “against the will” element is deliberately broad and consciously designed to capture all circumstances when there is an actual failure of consent, including use of psychological force. See State v. Kelso-Christy, 911 N.W.2d 663, 667 (Iowa 2018). It is not necessary to establish physical resistance by a person in order to establish that an act of sexual abuse was committed by force or against the will of the person. However, the circumstances surrounding the commission of the act may be considered in determining whether or not the act was done by force or against the will of the other. I.C.A. § 709.5.	No.
Kansas	Consent is not specifically defined. However, Kansas law provides that a person commits rape when a person knowingly engages in sexual intercourse with a victim who does not consent under any of the following circumstances: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • (1) the victim is overcome by force or fear; • (2) the victim is unconscious or physically powerless; • (3) the victim is incapable of giving consent because of mental deficiency or disease, or because of the effect of any alcoholic liquor, narcotic, drug or other substance, which condition was known by the offender or was reasonably apparent to the offender; • (4) the victim is under the age of 14; • (5) the victim’s consent was obtained through a knowing misrepresentation that the sexual intercourse was a medically or therapeutically necessary procedure; or • (6) the victim’s consent was obtained through a knowing misrepresentation made by the offender that the sexual intercourse was a legally required procedure within the scope of the offender’s authority. K.S.A. 21-5503. See also: The test for consent under that provision is whether the individual understands the nature and consequences of the proposed act. State v. Ice, 27 Kan. App. 2d 1, 4, 997 P.2d 737, 740 (2000). The Kansas rape statute does not require proof that the defendant intended to have nonconsensual intercourse. The statute requires proof that the defendant had sexual intercourse without the victim’s consent when the victim was overcome by force or fear. State v. Plunkett, 261 Kan. 1024, 1030-31, 934 P.2d 113, 118 (1997). If an individual can comprehend the sexual nature of the proposed act, can understand he or she has the right to refuse to participate, and possesses a rudimentary grasp of the possible results arising from participation in the act, he or she has the capacity to consent. State v. Ice, 27 Kan. App. 2d 1, 5, 997 P.2d 737, 740 (2000). A person may be convicted of rape if intercourse begins consensually but consent is withdrawn after penetration, that withdrawal is communicated to the defendant, and the intercourse continues by force or fear. State v. Flynn, 299 Kan. 1052, 1053, 329 P.3d 429, 430 (2014). The “force” required to sustain a rape conviction in this state does not require that a rape victim resist to the point of becoming the victim of other crimes such as battery or aggravated assault. The Kansas rape statute does not require the State to prove that a rape victim told the offender she did not consent, physically resisted the offender, and then endured sexual intercourse against her will. It does not require that a victim be physically overcome by force in the form of a beating or physical restraint. It requires only a finding that she did not give her consent and that the victim was overcome by force or fear to facilitate the sexual intercourse. State v. Borthwick, 255 Kan. 899, 914, 880 P.2d 1261, 1271 (Kan. 1994).	No.

Kentucky	"Lack of consent" results from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •(1) forcible compulsion; •(2) incapacity to consent; or •(3) if the offense charged is sexual abuse, any circumstances in addition to forcible compulsion or incapacity to consent in which the victim does not expressly or impliedly acquiesce in the actor's conduct. KRS § 510.020. A person is also "deemed incapable of consent" when he or she is <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •(1) less than 16 years old; •(2) 16 or 17 years old and the actor is at least 10 years older than the victim at the time of the sexual act; •(3) an individual unable to communicate consent or lack of consent, or unable to understand the nature of the act or its consequences, due to an intellectual disability or a mental illness; •(4) mentally incapacitated; •(5) physically helpless; or •(6) under the care or custody of state or local agency pursuant to court order and the actor is employed or working on behalf of the state or local agency, except where the persons are lawfully married to each other and there is no court order in effect prohibiting contact between the parties. KRS § 510.020. "Mental illness" means a diagnostic term that covers many clinical categories, typically including behavioral or psychological symptoms, or both, along with impairment of personal and social function, and specifically defined and clinically interpreted through reference to criteria contained in the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (Third Edition) and any subsequent revision thereto, of the American Psychiatric Association. KRS § 510.010. "Individual with an intellectual disability" means a person with significantly subaverage general intellectual functioning existing concurrently with deficits in adaptive behavior and manifested during the developmental period. KRS § 510.010. "Mentally incapacitated" means that a person is rendered temporarily incapable of appraising or controlling his or her conduct as a result of the influence of an intoxicating substance administered to him or her without his or her consent or as a result of any other act committed upon him without his or her consent. KRS § 510.010. "Physically helpless" means that a person is unconscious or for any other reason is physically unable to communicate unwillingness to act as well as a person who has been rendered unconscious or for any other reason is physically unable to communicate an unwillingness to an act as a result of the influence of a controlled substance or legend drug. KRS § 510.010. Actual physical force is not needed to prove forcible compulsion and in determining whether a victim submitted because of an implied threat which placed him or her in fear, a subjective rather than an objective standard must be applied. Yarnell v. Com. 833 S.W.2d 834, 836 (KY. 1992). 	No.
Louisiana	Consent is not defined. However, Louisiana law provides that a person commits a sex crime: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •(1) when the victim resists the act to the utmost, but whose resistance is overcome by force; •(2) when the victim is prevented from resisting the act by threats of great and immediate bodily harm, accompanied by apparent power of execution; •(3) when the victim is prevented from resisting the act because the offender is armed with a dangerous weapon; •(4) when the victim is under the age of 13; •(5) when two or more offenders participated in the act; •(6) when the victim is prevented from resisting the act because the victim is a person with a disability; •(7) when the victim is prevented from resisting the act by force or threats of physical violence under circumstances where the victim reasonably believes that such resistance would not prevent the rape; •(8) when the victim is incapable of resisting or of understanding the nature of the act by reason of stupor or abnormal condition of the mind produced by a narcotic or anesthetic agent or other controlled dangerous substance administered by the offender and without the knowledge of the victim; •(9) when the victim is incapable of resisting or of understanding the nature of the act by reason of a stupor or abnormal condition of mind produced by an intoxicating agent or any cause and the offender knew or should have known of the victim's incapacity; •(10) when the victim, through unsoundness of mind, is temporarily or permanently incapable of understanding the nature of the act and the offender knew or should have known of the victim's incapacity; •(11) when the victim submits under the belief that the person committing the act is someone known to the victim, other than the offender, and such belief is intentionally induced by any artifice, pretense, or concealment practiced by the offender. LSA-R.S. 14:42, LSA-R.S. 14:42.1, LSA-R.S. 14:43, LSA-R.S. 14:43.1. Further, a person is deemed incapable of consent when the person is under arrest or otherwise in the actual custody of a police officer or other law enforcement official and the offender is a police officer or other law enforcement official who either: (1) arrested the person or was responsible for maintaining the person in actual custody; (2) knows or reasonably should know that the person is under arrest or otherwise in actual custody. LSA-R.S. 14:41.1.	No.

Nevada	Consent is not defined by statute. However, it is an element of the crime of sexual assault that the crime was committed against the will of the victim. Nev. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 200.366.	No.
New Hampshire	The term consent is not defined by statute.	Yes, for some crimes. A person commits aggravated felonious sexual assault if he or she engages in sexual penetration with a person that indicates by speech or conduct that there is not freely given consent to performance of the sexual act. N.H. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 632-A:2(1)(m).
New Jersey	New Jersey's criminal code includes a generally applicable definition of consent as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. In general: The consent of the victim to conduct charged to constitute an offense or to the result thereof is a defense if such consent negates an element of the offense or precludes the infliction of the harm or evil sought to be prevented by the law defining the offense. 2. Consent to bodily harm: When conduct is charged to constitute an offense because it causes or threatens bodily harm, consent to such conduct or to the infliction of such harm is a defense if: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The bodily harm consented to or threatened by the conduct consented to is not serious; or 2. The conduct and the harm are reasonably foreseeable hazards of joint participation in a concerted activity of a kind not forbidden by law; or 3. The consent establishes a justification for the conduct under chapter 3 of the code. 3. Ineffective Consent: Unless otherwise provided by the code or by the law defining the offense, assent does not constitute consent if: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. It is given by a person who is legally incompetent to authorize the conduct charged to constitute the offense; or 2. It is given by a person who by reason of youth, mental disease or defect or intoxication is manifestly unable or known by the actor to be unable to make a reasonable judgment as to the nature of harmfulness of the conduct charged to constitute an offense; or 3. It is induced by force, duress or deception of a kind sought to be prevented by the law defining the offense. N.J. Stat. Ann. § 2C:2-10.	In order to establish effective consent by the putative victim of a sexual assault, a defendant must demonstrate the presence of “affirmative and freely-given permission....” State v. South Dakota	In 2023, South Dakota defined consent to mean “a person’s positive cooperation in act or attitude pursuant to the person’s exercise of free will.” S. D. Code §22-22-1.5 (1). Prior to 2023, South Dakota did not provide a definition for consent, but it provided that no consent exists for an act of sexual penetration accomplished with any person under the following circumstances: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •(1) If the victim is less than thirteen years of age; •(2) Through the use of force, coercion, or threats of immediate and great bodily harm against the victim or other persons within the victim’s presence, accompanied by apparent power of execution; •(3) If the victim is incapable, because of physical or mental incapacity, of giving consent to such act; •(4) If the victim is incapable of giving consent because of any intoxicating, narcotic, or anesthetic agent or hypnosis; or •(5) If the victim is 13 years of age, but less than 16 years of age, and the perpetrator is at least 3 years older than the victim. S.D. Code §22-22-1. As of 2023, in addition to the five circumstances above, South Dakota also defines rape as an act of sexual penetration without the victim’s consent and the perpetrator knows or reasonably should have known the victim is not consenting. S. D. Code §22-22-1. No person fifteen years of age or older may knowingly engage in sexual contact with another person other than his or her spouse who, although capable of consenting, has not consented to such contact. S.D. Code §22-22-7.4.	No, but “positive cooperation” is required. In 2023, South Dakota defined consent to mean “a person’s positive cooperation in act or attitude pursuant to the person’s exercise of free will.” S. D. Code §22-22-1.5 (1).
Tennessee	Tennessee does not provide a definition for consent, but it provides that rape is unlawful sexual penetration of a victim by the defendant or of the defendant by a victim accompanied by any of the following circumstances: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •(1) Force or coercion is used to accomplish the act; •(2) The sexual penetration is accomplished without the consent of the victim and the defendant knows or has reason to know at the time of the penetration that the victim did not consent; •(3) The defendant knows or has reason to know that the victim is mentally defective, mentally incapacitated, physically helpless or a vulnerable adult (defined as “a person eighteen (18) years of age or older who, because of intellectual disability or physical dysfunction, is unable to fully manage the person’s own resources, carry out all or a portion of the activities of daily living, or fully protect against neglect, exploitation, or hazardous or abusive situations without assistance from others”) with an intellectual disability; or •(4) The sexual penetration is accomplished by fraud. Tenn. Code Ann. §39-13-503. Sexual battery is unlawful sexual contact with a victim by the defendant or the defendant by a victim accompanied by any of the following circumstances: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •(1) Force or coercion is used to accomplish the act; •(2) The sexual contact is accomplished without the consent of the victim and the defendant knows or has reason to know at the time of the contact that the victim did not consent; •(3) The defendant knows or has reason to know that the victim is mentally defective, mentally incapacitated or physically helpless; or (4) The sexual contact is accomplished by fraud. For purposes of the crime of sexual battery a victim is incapable of consent if (1) the sexual contact with the victim occurs during the course of a consultation, examination, ongoing treatment, therapy, or other provision of professional services described in (2); and (2) the defendant, whether licensed by the state or not, is a member of the clergy, healthcare professional, or alcohol and drug abuse counselor who was treating the victim for a mental, emotional, or physical condition. Tenn. Code Ann. §39-13-505.	No, consent is not defined.
Texas	Under Texas law, sexual assault “without the consent” of the other person arises when: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •(1) the actor compels the other person to submit or participate by the use of physical force, violence, or coercion; •(2) the actor compels the other person to submit or participate by threatening to use force or violence against the other person or to cause harm to the other person, and the other person believes that the actor has the present ability to execute the threat; •(3) the other person has not consented and the actor knows the other person is unconscious or physically unable to resist; •(4) the actor knows that as a result of mental disease or defect the other person is at the time of the sexual assault incapable either of appraising the nature of the act or of resisting it; •(5) the other person has not consented and the actor knows the other person is unaware that the sexual assault is occurring; •(6) the actor has intentionally impaired the other person’s power to appraise or control the other person’s conduct by administering any substance without the other person’s knowledge; •(7) the actor compels the other person to submit or participate by threatening to use force or violence against any person, and the other person believes that the actor has the ability to execute the threat; •(8) the actor is a public servant who coerces the other person to submit or participate; •(9) the actor is a mental health services provider or a health care services provider who causes the other person, who is a patient or former patient of the actor, to submit or participate by exploiting the other person’s emotional dependency on the actor; •(10) the actor is a clergyman who causes the other person to submit or participate by exploiting the other person’s emotional dependency on the clergyman in the clergyman’s professional character as spiritual adviser; •(11) the actor is an employee of a facility where the other person is a resident, unless the employee and resident are formally or informally married to each other under the Texas Family Code; or •(12) the actor is a health care services provider who, in the course of performing an assisted reproduction procedure on the other person, uses human reproductive material from a donor knowing that the other person has not expressly consented to the use of material from that donor; •(13) purposes of the crime of sexual battery a victim is incapable of consent if (1) the sexual contact with the victim occurs during the course of a consultation, examination, ongoing treatment, therapy, or other provision of professional services described in (2); and (2) the defendant, whether licensed by the state or not, is a member of the clergy, healthcare professional, or alcohol and drug abuse counselor who was treating the victim for a mental, emotional, or physical condition. Tenn. Code Ann. §39-13-505 •(14) the actor is a caregiver hired to assist the other person with activities of daily life and causes the other person to submit or participate by exploiting the other person’s dependency on the actor. Texas Penal Code Ann. §22.011(b).	No.
Utah	Under Utah law, sexual offenses “without consent” of the victim arise when: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •(a) the victim expresses lack of consent through words or conduct; •(b) the actor overcomes the victim through the actual application of physical force or violence; •(c) the actor is able to overcome the victim through concealment or by the element of surprise; •(d) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •(i) the actor coerces the victim to submit by threatening to retaliate in the immediate future against the victim or any other person, and the victim perceives at the time that the actor has the ability to execute this threat; or •(ii) the actor coerces the victim to submit by threatening to retaliate in the future against the victim or any other person, and the victim believes at the time that the actor has the ability to execute this threat; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • (“to retaliate” includes threats of physical force, kidnapping, or extortion) •(e) the actor knows the victim is unconscious, unaware that the act is occurring, or is physically unable to resist; •(f) the actor knows or reasonably should know that the victim has a mental disease or defect, which renders the victim unable to appraise the nature of the act, resist the act, understand the possible consequences to the victim’s health or safety, or appraise the nature of the relationship between the actor and the victim; •(g) the actor knows that the victim participates because the victim erroneously believes that the actor is someone else; •(h) the actor intentionally impaired the power of the victim to appraise or control his or her conduct by administering any substance without the victim’s knowledge; •(i) the victim is younger than 14 years of age; •(j) the victim is younger than 18 years of age and at the time of the offense the actor was the victim’s parent. 	No. “[T]he essence of consent is that it is given out of free will, and determining whether someone has truly consented requires close attention to a wide range of contextual elements, including verbal and nonverbal cues.” State v. Reigelsperger , 400 P.3d 1127, 1145 (Utah App. 2017).

Consent may be initially given but may be withdrawn through words or conduct at any time prior to or during sexual activity. Utah Code Ann. §76-5-406(2)-(3).
Vermont	“Consent” means the affirmative, unambiguous, and voluntary agreement to engage in a sexual act, which can be revoked at any time. 13 Vermont Stat. Ann. §3251(3). “Incapable of consenting” means the person: (A) is incapable of understanding the nature of the conduct at issue; (B) is physically incapable of resisting, declining participation in, or communicating unwillingness to engage in the conduct at issue; or (C) lacks the mental ability to make or communicate a decision about whether to engage in the conduct at issue. 13 Vermont Stat. Ann. §3251(10). In addition, a sleeping or unconscious person cannot consent. Id. §3254(4). Additionally, a person will be deemed to have acted without the consent of the other person where the actor: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •(A) knew or reasonably should have known that the other person was incapable of consenting to the sexual act or lewd and lascivious conduct; •(B) knew or reasonably should have known that the other person was unaware that a sexual act or lewd and lascivious conduct was being committed; or •(C) knew or reasonably should have known that the other person was incapable of consenting to the sexual act or lewd and lascivious conduct with the actor because the person was substantially impaired by alcohol, drugs, or other intoxicants. Lack of consent may be shown without proof of resistance. Submission resulting from the use of force, threat of force, or placing another person in fear does not constitute consent. 13 Vermont Stat. Ann. §3254.	Yes.
Virgin Islands	Consent is not specifically defined. However, there is no consent in circumstances when: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •(a) a person’s resistance is prevented by fear of immediate and great bodily harm (Williams v. Virgin Islands, No. CRIM. 2007-0008, 2011 WL 4072738 (V.I. Sept. 12, 2011)); or •(b) either force, intimidation, or abuse of a position of authority is used to accomplish a sexual act. Francis v. People, No. S.CT.CRIM. 2015-0002, 2015 WL 6460074 (V.I. Oct. 23, 2015); or •(c) the victim is 13, 14 or 15 years old even if force, intimidation or abuse of a position of authority was not used to accomplish the sexual act Francis v. People, No. S.CT.CRIM. 2015-0002, 2015 WL 6460074 (V.I. Oct. 23, 2015). 	No.
Virginia	Virginia does not provide a definition for consent, but defines rape as sexual intercourse (i) against the complaining witness’s will, by force, threat or intimidation of or against the complaining witness or another person; or (ii) through the use of the complaining witness’s mental incapacity or physical helplessness; or (iii) with a child under age 13 as the victim, and sexual battery as sexual abuse against the will of the complaining witness, by force, threat, intimidation or ruse. VA Code Ann. §§18.2-61; 18.2-67.4.	No.
Washington	Consent requires that there are actual words or conduct indicating freely given agreement to have sexual intercourse or sexual contact at the time of the act. Wash. Rev. Code Ann. § 9A.44.010(2).	Yes. Wash. Rev. Code Ann. § 9A.44.010(2). A person is guilty of rape in the third degree when, under circumstances not constituting rape in the first or second degrees, such person engages in sexual intercourse with another person where the victim did not consent to sexual intercourse with the perpetrator or where there is a threat of substantial unlawful harm to property rights of the victim. Wash. Rev. Code Ann. § 9A.44.060(1). “Consent” means that at the time of the act of sexual intercourse or sexual contact there are actual words or conduct indicating freely given agreement to have sexual intercourse or sexual contact. Wash. Rev. Code Ann. § 9A.44.010(2).
West Virginia	Lack of consent results from forcible compulsion, incapacity to consent, or, if the offense charged is sexual abuse, any circumstances in addition to the forcible compulsion or incapacity to consent in which the victim does not expressly or impliedly acquiesce in the actor’s conduct. W. Va. Code Ann. § 61-8B-2(b). A person cannot consent to sexual intercourse if they are less than 16 years old; mentally defective; mentally incapacitated; physically helpless; or subject to incarceration, confinement or supervision by a state, county, or local government entity, when the actor is a person prohibited from having sexual intercourse, or causing sexual intrusion or sexual contact pursuant to § 61-8B-10 of this code. W. Va. Code Ann. § 61-8B-2(c).	No.
Wisconsin	“Consent” means words or overt actions by a person who is competent to give informed consent indicating a freely given agreement to have sexual intercourse or sexual contact. A person is presumed (but the presumption may be rebutted by competent evidence) incapable of consent to sexual contact or sexual intercourse in circumstances where: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •(a) the person suffers from a mental illness or defect which impairs capacity to appraise personal conduct; or •(b) the person is unconscious or for any other reason is physically unable to communicate unwillingness to an act. Wis. Stat. Ann. § 940.225(4). 	Yes, consent must be “freely given.” Wis. Stat. Ann. § 940.225(4).
Wyoming	Consent is not defined by statute. However, case law suggests that in order for a person to consent to sexual intercourse, the person must be in a position to exercise independent judgment about the matter. Wilson v. State, 655 P.2d 1246 (Wyo. 1982).	No.

California	18 years old. California Penal Code § 261.5.	Yes, a person can be incapable of giving legal consent because of a mental disorder or developmental disability. California Penal Code § 261(a)(1). See People v. Vukodinovich , 238 Cal.App.4th 166 (Cal. Ct. App. 2015).	Yes, the accused is guilty of rape if engaging in an act of sexual intercourse where the other person is at the time unconscious of the nature of the act and it is known to the accused. California Penal Code § 261(a)(4). "Unconscious of the nature of the act" means incapable of resisting because the victim meets any one of the following conditions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> was unconscious or asleep; was not aware, knowing, perceiving or cognizant that the act occurred; was not aware, knowing, perceiving or cognizant of the essential characteristics of the act due to the perpetrator's fraud in fact; or was not aware, knowing, perceiving or cognizant of the essential characteristics of the act due to the perpetrator's fraudulent representation that the sexual penetration served a professional purpose when it served no professional purpose. 	Yes, the accused is guilty of rape if engaging in an act of sexual intercourse where the other person is prevented from resisting by an intoxicating or anesthetic substance, or a controlled substance, and this condition was known, or reasonably should have been known, by the accused. California Penal Code § 261(a)(3).	Yes, a minor is capable of consenting to sexual intercourse with an adult who is the minor's spouse. California Penal Code § 261.5(a). However, a current or previous dating or marital relationship is not sufficient to constitute consent if consent is at issue in a prosecution for rape. 261.6(b).
Colorado	17 years old, subject to certain close-in-age exemptions (described below). Colorado Revised Statutes Annotated § 18-3-402(1)(d)-(e).	Yes, the actor may be guilty of sexual assault and/or unlawful sexual contact when the actor knows that the victim is incapable of appraising the nature of the victim's conduct. Colorado Revised Statutes Annotated §§ 18-3-402(1)(b); 18-3-404(1)(b).	Yes, unconsciousness falls within the definition of "physically helpless" and therefore the actor may be guilty of sexual assault and/or unlawful sexual contact when the victim is unconscious and the actor knows the victim is unconscious and the victim has not consented. Colorado Revised Statutes Annotated § 18-3-401. In addition, the sexual assault statute prohibiting sexual intrusion or penetration if actor knows that victim is incapable of appraising nature of victim's conduct may extend to victims who are partially asleep. People v. Platt , 170 P.3d 802 (Colo. App. 2007).	Yes, any actor who knowingly subjects a victim to any sexual contact commits unlawful sexual contact if the actor has substantially impaired the victim's power to appraise or control the victim's conduct by employing, without the victim's consent, any drug, intoxicant, or other means for the purpose of causing submission. Colorado Revised Statutes Annotated § 18-3-404(1)(d). In addition, in People In Interest of G.B. , 433 P.3d 138 (Colo. App. 2018), the court held that evidence that a sexual assault victim was intoxicated during sexual intercourse, and was for that reason incapable of appraising nature of her conduct, was sufficient to support a sexual assault conviction.	Yes. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Married spouses: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> There are certain marital exceptions when there is a marital relationship between an actor and a victim where the elements of the unlawful sexual behavior offense specifically excludes a spouse, such as certain age-related sexual assault offenses, sexual assault on a child (victim under the age of fifteen (15) and actor at least four (4) years older than the victim), and sexual assault on a child (victim under the age of eighteen (18)) by a person in a position of trust. Massachusetts	16 to 18 years old depending on the crime below. • Statutory rape is defined as sexual intercourse or unnatural sexual intercourse with a child under 16. Mass. Gen. Laws, Ann. ch. 265, § 23. • It is a crime to induce a person under 18 of chaste life to have unlawful sexual intercourse. Mass. Gen. Laws, Ann. ch. 272 § 4. • A child under the age of 14 shall be deemed incapable of consent to contact of a sexual nature with a law enforcement officer while under detention. Mass. Gen. Laws, Ann. ch. 265, § 13H 1/2.	Yes, if the victim was incapable of consenting due to such developmental disability and/or mental incapacity. Com. v. Fuller , 845 N.E.2d 434, 66 Mass.App.Ct. 84 (2006). The punishment for indecent assault and battery on a person with a disability (a person with a permanent or long-term physical or mental impairment that prevents or restricts the individual's ability to provide for his or her own care or protection) is more severe. Mass. Gen. Laws, Ann. ch. 265, §13H and §13K (defining "person with a disability"). A person known to a law enforcement officer as having an intellectual or physical disability is deemed incapable of consent to sexual contact with a law enforcement officer while the person is under detention. Mass. Gen. Laws, Ann. ch. 265, §13H 1/2.	Yes, if the victim is so impaired as to be incapable of consenting to intercourse. Com. v. Blatche , 880 N.E.2d 736, 743, 450 Mass. 583, 592 (2008).	Yes, if such intoxication renders the person incapable of giving consent. Com. v. Urban , 880 N.E.2d 753, 450 Mass. 608 (2008). Fact of intoxication, by itself, does not necessarily mean that an individual is incapable of deciding whether to assent to a sexual encounter. Id.	No. However, it is aggravated statutory rape (which carries a harsher punishment) for a person that is a "mandated reporter" at the time of the act to have sexual intercourse or unnatural sexual intercourse with a child under 16 years of age. Mass. Gen. Laws, Ann. ch. 265, §23A. "Mandated reporter" means a person who is: • (i) a physician, medical intern, hospital personnel engaged in the examination, care or treatment of persons, medical examiner, psychologist, emergency medical technician, dentist, nurse, chiropractor, podiatrist, optometrist, osteopath, allied mental health and human services professional licensed under section 165 of chapter 112, drug and alcoholism counselor, psychiatrist or clinical social worker; • (ii) a public or private school teacher, educational administrator, guidance or family counselor, child care worker, person paid to care for or work with a child in any public or private facility, or home or program funded by the commonwealth or licensed under chapter 15D that provides child care or residential services to children or that provides the services of child care resource and referral agencies, voucher management agencies or family child care systems or child care food programs, licenser of the department of early education and care or school attendance officer; • (iii) a probation officer, clerk-magistrate of a district court, parole officer, social worker, foster parent, firefighter, police officer, or animal control officer; • (iv) a priest, rabbi, clergy member, ordained or licensed minister, leader of any church or religious body, accredited Christian Science practitioner, person performing official duties on behalf of a church or religious body that are recognized as the duties of a priest, rabbi, clergy, ordained or licensed minister, leader of any church or religious body, accredited Christian Science practitioner, or person employed by a church or religious body to supervise, educate, coach, train or counsel a child on a regular basis; • (v) in charge of a medical or other public or private institution, school or facility or that person's designated agent; or • (vi) the child advocate. Wyoming

17 years old. Wyo. Stat. Ann. § 6-2-316.

Yes, any actor who inflicts sexual intrusion on a victim commits a sexual assault in the first degree if the actor knows or reasonably should know that the victim through a mental illness, mental deficiency or developmental disability is incapable of appraising the nature of the victim's conduct. Wyo. Stat. Ann. § 6-2-302.

Yes, a person who is unconscious is deemed to be "physically helpless" and not capable of consenting. Wyo. Stat. Ann. § 6-2-302; Wyo. Stat. Ann. § 6-2-301.

Yes, if the intoxication makes the victim "physically helpless" or have a mental illness, mental deficiency or developmental disability that makes them incapable of appraising the nature of their conduct. Wyo. Stat. Ann. § 6-2-301; Wyo. Stat. Ann. § 6-2-302. CSC v. State of Wyoming, 118 P.3d 970 (Wyo. 2005).

Any actor who inflicts sexual intrusion on a victim commits a sexual assault in the second degree if the actor administers, or knows that someone else administered to the victim, without the prior knowledge or consent of the victim, any substance which substantially impairs the victim's power to appraise or control his conduct. Wyo. Stat. Ann. § 6-2-303.

Yes, there are special rules for persons deemed to be in a "position of authority" over the victim that will impact the victim's ability to consent.

"Position of authority" means that position occupied by a parent, guardian, relative, household member, teacher, employer, custodian, health care provider or any other person who, by reason of his position, is able to exercise significant influence over a person. Wyo. Stat. Ann. § 6-2-301.

- A person commits a sexual assault in the second degree if:
1. the actor inflicts sexual intrusion on a victim and the actor is in a position of authority over the victim and uses this position of authority to cause the victim to submit;
 2. the actor inflicts sexual intrusion on a victim and the actor is an employee, independent contractor or volunteer of a state, county, city or town, or privately operated adult or juvenile correctional system, including but not limited to jails, penal institutions, detention centers, juvenile residential or rehabilitative facilities, adult community correctional facilities or secure treatment facilities and the victim is known or should be known by the actor to be a resident of such facility or under supervision of the correctional system;
 3. the actor inflicts sexual intrusion on a victim and the actor is an employee or volunteer of an elementary or secondary public or private school who, by virtue of the actor's employment or volunteer relationship with the school, has interaction with the victim who is a student or participant in the activities of the school and is more than four (4) years older than the victim; or
 4. the actor subjects another person to sexual contact or sexual intrusion in the actor's capacity as a health care provider in the course of providing care, treatment, services or procedures to maintain, diagnose or otherwise treat a patient's physical or mental condition.

Wyo. Stat. Ann. § 6-2-303.

Depending on the age difference between the victim and actor, an actor in a position of authority over a victim may be guilty of sexual abuse of a minor in varying degrees:

- Sexual abuse of a minor in the first degree. Wyo. Stat. Ann. § 6-2-314.
 - An actor commits the crime of sexual abuse of a minor in the first degree if:
 - Being 18 years of age or older, the actor inflicts sexual intrusion on a victim who is less than 18 years of age, and the actor is the victim's legal guardian or an ancestor or descendant or a brother or sister of the whole or half-blood
 - Being 18 years of age or older, the actor inflicts sexual intrusion on a victim who is less than 16 years of age and the actor occupies a position of authority in relation to the victim.
- Sexual abuse of a minor in the second degree. Wyo. Stat. Ann. § 6-2-315.
 - An actor commits the crime of sexual abuse of a minor in the second degree if:
 - Being 18 years of age or older, the actor engages in sexual contact with a victim who is less than 18 years of age, and the actor is the victim's legal guardian or an ancestor or descendant or a brother or sister of the whole or half-blood
 - Being 18 years of age or older, the actor engages in sexual contact with a victim who is less than 16 years of age and the actor occupies a position of authority in relation to the victim.
- Sexual abuse of a minor in the third degree. Wyo. Stat. Ann. § 6-2-316.
 - An actor commits the crime of sexual abuse of a minor in the third degree if:
 - Being 20 years of age or older, the actor engages in sexual intrusion with a victim who is either 16 or 17 years of age, and the victim is at least 4 years younger than the actor, and the actor occupies a position of authority in relation to the victim.
- Sexual abuse of a minor in the fourth degree. Wyo. Stat. Ann. § 6-2-317.
 - An actor commits the crime of sexual abuse of a minor in the fourth degree if:
 - Being 20 years of age or older, the actor engages in sexual contact with a victim who is either 16 or 17 years of age, and the victim is at least 4 years younger than the actor, and the actor occupies a position of authority in relation to the victim.
