(D) An employee in the victim's school or school district, a temporary caretaker, or a person in a position of trust or authority over the victim; or

(2) The person is a teacher, principal, athletic coach, or counselor in a public or private school in kindergarten through grade twelve (K-12) and the actor:

(A) Engages in sexual intercourse or deviate sexual activity with a person who is not the actor's spouse and the victim is:

(i) Less than twenty-one (21) years of age; and

(ii) A student enrolled in the public or private school employing the actor; and

(B) Is in a position of trust or authority over the victim and uses his or her position of trust or authority over the victim to engage in sexual intercourse or deviate sexual activity.

It is no defense that the victim consents to the conduct. It is an affirmative defense that the offender was not more than 3 years older than the victim.

Sexual Assault in the Second Degree

- Engages in sexual contact with another person by forcible compulsion.
- Engages in sexual contact with another person who is incapable of consent because he or she is physically helpless, mentally defective, or mentally incapacitated.

Note: Consent of the minor is not a defense.

Being a minor, engages in sexual contact with another person who is less than 14 years, and not the person’s spouse.

However, it is an affirmative defense that the offender was not more than 3 years older than the victim if the victim is less than 12 years; or the offender was not more than 4 years older than the victim if the victim is 12 years or older.

Being a teacher, principal, athletic coach, or counselor of a K12 public or private school in a position of trust or authority and uses his or her position of trust or authority over the victim, engages in sexual contact with a victim who is a student enrolled in the K12 public or private school, and is less than 21 years.

sexual intercourse or deviate sexual activity with another person who is less than 14 years.

- However, it is an affirmative defense that the offender was not more than 3 years older than the victim.

It is no defense that the victim consented to the conduct.

Sexual Assault in the Fourth Degree

- Being 20 years or older engages in sexual intercourse, deviate sexual activity, or sexual contact with another person who is less than 16 years, and not the person's spouse.
- Engages in sexual contact with another person who is not the offender’s spouse, and the offender is employed with any city or county jail or facility, and the victim is in the custody of such jail or facility.

Statutory Rape

Sodomy

- Arkansas does not appear to criminalize sodomy.
- Any state laws that outright prohibit sodomy are unconstitutional under Lawrence v. Texas, 539 U.S. 588 (2003).

Sexual Indecency with a Child

A person commits sexual indecency with a child if the person:

- Being 18 years or older, the person solicits another person who is, or represented to be, less than 15 years to engage in sexual intercourse, deviate sexual activity, or sexual contact.
- With the purpose to arouse or gratify a sexual desire of either himself or another person, the person purposely exposes his or her sex organs to another person who is less than 15 years.
  - However, it is an affirmative defense if the person is within 3 years of age of the victim.
- With the purpose to arouse or gratify a sexual desire of either himself or another person, the person purposely exposes his or her sex organs to a minor, and the offender is in a position of trust or authority over the minor.

- Trust or authority includes, but is not limited to, any offender:
  employed by any city or county jail, or any juvenile detention facility, which the minor is in custody; that is a mandated reporter; that is the minor’s parent or guardian, an employee in the minor’s school or school district, or a temporary caretaker.

- With the purpose to arouse or gratify a sexual desire of either himself or another person, the person being 18 years of age or older, causes or coerces a minor to expose his or her sex organs to the actor or another person, and the offender is in a position of trust or authority over the minor.
  Position of trust or authority includes, but is not limited to, an offender: employed by or contracted with any city or county jail, or juvenile detention facility where the victim is in the custody; employed by or contracted with a local law enforcement agency, court, or local government where the offender is supervising the minor while the minor is on probation or parole or for any other court-ordered reason; that is a mandated reporter; that is the minor’s guardian, an employee in the victim’s school or school district, or a temporary caretaker.

- Being 18 years or older, the person causes or coerces another person who is less than 14 years to expose his or her sex organs or the breast of a female with the purpose to arouse or gratify a sexual desire of the actor or another person.

Note that the Court of Appeals of Arkansas held that the solicitation provision of the sexual indecency with a child statute (the first bullet above), as applied to prosecute defendant, was unconstitutionally overbroad in suppressing the defendant’s fundamental right to engage in protected expression because the provision also prohibits the solicitation of legal sexual acts. The provision was not narrowly tailored to achieve the state’s stated goal of protecting minors, where the prior version of the statute provided a clear example of a less restrictive alternative by which the state could achieve its goal (such prior version criminalized only solicitations of sexual conduct that would otherwise be illegal). Worsham v. Arkansas, 2019 Ark. App. 65 (Ark. 2019).

Sexual Extortion

A person commits sexual extortion if the person:

- Communicates a threat to damage the property or harm the reputation of the other person, or produce or distribute a recording of the other person engaged in sexually explicit conduct or depicted in a state of nudity or engaged in sexually explicit conduct; or the person knowingly causes another person to engage in sexual contact or sexually explicit conduct or to produce or distribute a recording of a person in a state of nudity or engaged in sexually explicit conduct.

Statutory Rape

Alabama no longer separately codifies the offense of “statutory rape.” Instead, statutory rape has been supplanted by Ala. Code § 13A-6-61(a)(3) (rape in the first degree) and Ala. Code § 13A-6-62(a)(1) (rape in the second degree).

Further, Ala. Code §§ 13A-6-63 and 13A-6-64 (sodomy in the first and second degrees) and Ala. Code § 13A-6-67 (sexual abuse in the second degree) contain language covering other offenses that constitute what is otherwise commonly called “statutory rape.” Finally, Ala. Code § 13A-6-69.1 (sexual abuse of a child less than 12 years old) contains additional prohibitions. The relevant laws are as follows:

- Rape in the first degree: Sexual intercourse between an offender who is 16 years old or older and a victim who is under 12 years old.
- Rape in the second degree: Sexual intercourse when (a) the offender is 16 years old or older, (b) the victim is 12 years old or older but less than 16 years old, and (c) the offender is at least two years older than the victim.
- Sodomy in the first degree: Sodomy between an offender who is 16 years old or older and a victim who is under 12 years old.

The following factors may be considered in determining whether the relationship between the victim and the defendant is currently a romantic or sexual relationship: (a) the type of relationship; (b) the length of the relationship; (c) the frequency of the interaction between the victim and the defendant; (d) if the relationship has terminated, the length of time since the termination.

A person commits unlawful sexual conduct by intentionally or knowingly engaging in any act of a sexual nature with an “offender” (i.e., “prisoner”) who is:

- In the custody of the state department of corrections, the department of juvenile corrections, a private prison facility, a juvenile detention facility or a city or county jail; or

Rape
An offender commits the crime of rape by engaging in sexual intercourse with another person under any of the following circumstances:

- Where the victim who is not the offender's spouse is incapable of giving consent because of a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability, and this is known or reasonably should be known to the person committing the act;
- Where the act is accomplished against a victim's will by means of force, violence, duress, menace or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the person or another;
- Where the victim is prevented from resisting because of any intoxicating or anesthetic substance, or any controlled substance and the offender knew or reasonably should have known of the victim's condition;
- Where the victim was unconscious of the nature of the act and this was known to the offender;
- Where the victim submits under the belief that the offender is someone known to the victim other than the offender, and this false belief was intentionally induced by the offender's artifice, pretense or concealment;
- Where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by threatening to retaliate in the future against the victim or any other person, and there is a reasonable possibility that the offender will execute the threat; or
- Where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by threatening to use the authority of a public official to incarcerate, arrest, or deport the victim or another person, and the victim has a reasonable belief that the offender is a public official.

In the context of the crime of rape, California law does not specifically define "sexual intercourse" (although the term "sexual intercourse" is defined in the specific contexts of certain other crimes). Instead, the legislature broadly construes what kinds of acts constitute rape. The statutes contain the following information:

- All forms of nonconsensual sexual assault may be considered rape.
The essential determination of whether an offender is guilty of rape lies in the outrage to the victim’s person and the feelings of the victim of the rape.
Any sexual penetration, however slight, is sufficient to constitute rape.

Sodomy
The crime of sodomy is defined as sexual conduct consisting of contact between the penis of one person and the anus of another person. Any sexual penetration, however slight, is sufficient to complete the crime of sodomy.

Forcible Acts of Sexual Penetration
An offender commits the crime of forcible acts of sexual penetration by committing an act of sexual penetration under any of the following circumstances:

- Where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by means of force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person;
- Where the act is accomplished against the victim’s will by threatening to retaliate in the future against the victim or any other person, and there is a reasonable possibility that the offender will execute the threat;
- Where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability, and this is known or reasonably should be known to the person committing the act;
- Where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability, and both the victim and offender are confined in a state hospital for treatment of the mentally disordered;

person is less than 12 years of age, or in an attempt to commit sexual battery injures the sexual organs of such person;

- Under § 794.05, a person 24 years of age or older who engages in sexual activity with a person 16 or 17 years of age.

  Note: The victim’s prior sexual conduct is not a relevant issue.

  Note: If an offense under § 794.05 directly results in the victim giving birth to a child, paternity of that child shall be established as described in chapter 742. If it is determined that the offender is the father of the child, the offender must pay child support pursuant to the child support guidelines described in chapter 61.

  Note: Under § 794.021, where the criminality of the conduct depends on the victim's age, ignorance of the age is not a defense. Neither is misrepresentation of age by such person, or a bona fide belief that such person is over the specified age.

Sodomy

Fla. Stat. § 800.02 provides that “a person who commits any unnatural and lascivious act with another person commits a misdemeanor of the second degree.” While this statute does not expressly address sodomy, an unnatural and lascivious act requires an intentional act of sexual indulgence or public indecency “when such act causes offense to one or more persons viewing it or otherwise intrudes upon the rights of others.” See Conforti v. State, 800 So.2d 350, 351 (Fla. 4th DCA 2001).

Statutory Rape

- Statutory Rape: Engaging in sexual intercourse with any person under the age of 16 years and not his or her spouse, provided that no conviction shall be had for this offense on the unsupported testimony of the victim.

- Child Molestation: Defendant commits (or by means of an electronic device, transmits images of a person engaging in, inducing, or otherwise participating in) any immoral or indecent act to or in the presence of or with any child under the age of 16 years with the intent to arouse or satisfy the sexual desires of either the child or the person

- Aggravated Child Molestation: Defendant commits child molestation which act leads to physical injuries to the child or involves an act of sodomy

- Enticing a Child for Indecent Purposes: Defendant solicits, entices, or takes any child under the age of 16 years to any place whatsoever for the purpose of child molestation or indecent acts.

disability, or a facility providing child welfare and youth services of which he or she is an employee or agent;
- The subject of such employee or agent’s actual or purported psychotherapy treatment or counseling; or
- Admitted for care at a sensitive care facility of which he or she is an employee or agent.

- A person commits the offense of improper sexual contact by a foster parent in the first degree when he or she is a foster parent and knowingly engages in sexually explicit conduct with his or her current foster child.

- A person commits the offense of improper sexual contact by a person in a position of trust in the first degree when a person in a position of trust engages in sexually explicit conduct with a minor for whom he or she has entered into an agreement entrusting him or her with the responsibility of education and supervision of such minor.

- An employee or agent commits the offense of improper sexual contact by employee or agent in the second degree when such employee or agent knowingly engages in sexual contact, excluding sexually explicit conduct, with another person whom such employee or agent knows or reasonably should have known is contemporaneously:
  - Enrolled as a student at a school of which he or she is an employee or agent;
  - Under probation, parole, accountability court, or pretrial diversion supervision of the office or court of which he or she is an employee or agent;

- Admitted for care at a sensitive care position of trust engages in sexual contact, excluding sexually explicit conduct, with a minor for whom he or she has entered into an agreement entrusting him or her with the responsibility of education and supervision of such minor.

Note: Consent of the victim shall not be a defense.

Note: This Code section does not apply to sexually explicit conduct or sexual contact between individuals lawfully married to each other.

Note: This Code section does not apply to a student who is enrolled at the same school as the victim.

Sodomy/Aggravated Sodomy

- Sodomy: Performing or submitting to any sexual act involving the sex organs of one person and the mouth or anus of another.

- Aggravated Sodomy: Committing sodomy with force and against the will of the other person or the other person is less than 10 years of age.

Note: The fact that the person sodomized is the spouse of a defendant is not a defense to a charge of aggravated sodomy.

Note: Any state that outright prohibits private consensual sodomy between adults violates the Due Process Clause of the Federal Constitution, and is unconstitutional under Lawrence v. Texas, 539 U.S. 588 (2003). See also Green v. Georgia, 51
F. Supp. 3d 1304, 1307 (N.D. Ga. 2014) (noting that the United States Supreme Court overruled Bowers v. Hardwick, 478 U.S. 186 (1986) where O.C.G.A. § 16-6-2 had survived an attack). This section has also been held unconstitutional to the extent it criminalizes the performance of private, unforced, non-commercial acts of sexual intimacy between persons legally able to consent, Powell v. State, 270 G. 327, 510 (1998).

(Aggravated) Sexual Battery

- Sexual battery occurs when the defendant intentionally makes physical contact with the intimate parts of the body of another person without the consent of that person.
- Aggravated sexual battery occurs when the defendant intentionally penetrates the sexual organ or anus of another person with a foreign object without the consent of that person.

No person shall engage in a sexual act with a minor if:

- The actor is at least 48 months older than the minor, and
- The actor is in a position of power, authority, or supervision over the minor by virtue of the actor’s undertaking the responsibility, professionally or voluntarily, to provide for the health or welfare of minors, or guidance, leadership, instruction, or organized recreational activities for minors. A high school employee who is between employment contracts during summer break is not in position of authority over a student. State v. Graham, 2016 VT 48 (Vt. Apr. 29, 2016).

Statutory Rape

- “Statutory rape” is commonly used to refer to sexual penetration that is illegal because it involves a youth.
- Vermont has no specific statutory rape statute, but this concept is captured by section (c) of 13 V.S.A. § 3252, “Sexual Assault”, 13 V.S.A. § 3253a “Aggravated Sexual Assault of a Child” and 13 V.S.A. § 3258 “Sexual Exploitation of a Minor”

Sodomy

- Vermont does not appear to have an anti-sodomy law on the books.
- Any state laws that outright prohibit sodomy are unconstitutional under Lawrence v. Texas, 539 U.S. 588 (2003).
- Vermont’s reporting statutes for abuse in children includes sodomy within the definition of “sexual abuse” requiring reporting.

threat, or intimidation of or against the victim or another person;
• Through the use of the victim’s mental incapacity or physical helplessness; or
• With a child under the age of 13 years as the victim.

Note: There is a rebuttable presumption that a juvenile over the age of 10 years but less than 12 years does not possess the physical capacity to commit rape.

Carnal Knowledge of a Child Between 13-15 Years of Age

- A) Carnally knowing, without the use of force, a child at least 13 but less than 15 years of age; or
- B) Carnally knowing, without the use of force, a child at least 13 but less than 15 years of age, who consents to sexual intercourse, and defendant is a minor but at least 3 years the child’s senior; or
- C) Carnally knowing, without the use of force, a child at least 13 but less than 15 years of age, who consents to sexual intercourse, and defendant is a minor but less than 3 years the child’s senior.

Note: A child under the age of 13 years shall not be considered a consenting child.

Carnal Knowledge of an Inmate, Parolee, Probationer

- (A) Defendant is:
  - An employee or contractual employee of, or a volunteer with, a state or local correctional facility or regional jail, the Department of Corrections, the Department of Juvenile Justice, or other like detention or pretrial/probation services; and
  - In a position of authority over the person detailed or arrested by the officer, inmate, parolee, probationer, juvenile detainees, etc.; and
  - Knows that the victim is under the jurisdiction of the state or local facility or service; and
  - Carnally knows, without the use of force, threat, or intimidation, the victim in question.

- (B) Defendant is:
  - An owner or employee of the bail bond company that posted the victim’s pre-trial or post-trial bond; and
  - Has the authority to revoke the victim’s bond; and
• Carnally knows, without the use of force, threat, or intimidation, the victim in question.

Forcible Sodomy
• Engaging in cunnilingus, fellatio, anilingus, or anal intercourse with a victim, whether or not his/her spouse, or causing a victim, whether or not his/her spouse, to engage in such acts with any other person, and:
  • The victim is less than 13 years of age; or
  • The act is accomplished against the will of the victim, by force, threat or intimidation of or against the victim or another person, or through the use of the victim's mental incapacity or physical helplessness.

Object Sexual Penetration
• An accused shall be guilty of inanimate or animate object sexual penetration if he or she penetrates the labia majora or anus of a complaining witness, whether or not his or her spouse, other than for a bona fide medical purpose, or causes such complaining witness to so penetrate his or her own body with an object or causes a complaining witness, whether or not his or her spouse, to engage in such acts with any other person or to penetrate, or to be penetrated by, an animal, and
  • The complaining witness is less than 13 years of age; or
  • The act is accomplished against the will of the complaining witness, by force, threat or intimidation of or against the complaining witness or another person, or through the use of the complaining witness’s mental incapacity or physical helplessness.

Statutory Rape
• “Statutory rape” is commonly used to refer to sexual penetration that is illegal because it involves a youth and consent is immaterial. While Virginia expressly penalizes carnal knowledge of a child between 13 and 15 years of age, the offenses of rape and forcible sodomy also targets “statutory rape” under certain circumstances.
• Statutory rape is rape if defendant engages in sexual intercourse with the victim, and the victim is under the age of 13 years; or causes the victim to engage in sexual intercourse with another person, and the victim is under the age of 13 years. It is immaterial whether or not the victim is defendant’s spouse.

- Statutory rape is forcible sodomy if defendant engages in cunnilingus, fellatio, anilingus, or anal intercourse with a victim, and the victim is under the age of 13 years; or causes the victim to engage in the acts in question with another person, and the victim is under the age of 13 years. It is immaterial whether or not the victim is defendant’s spouse.
