An individual in the position of a long-term care ombudsmen is a mandated reporter of suspected abuse or neglect.

Any person not required to report who has reasonable cause to believe that a vulnerable adult has been subjected to abuse or neglect, or who observes a vulnerable adult being subjected to conditions or circumstances that reasonably would result in abuse or neglect, must report the information to the department of human services or the department of human services’ designee or to an appropriate law enforcement agency.

Reporting
• Abuse, neglect; or exploitation must be reported immediately.
• Information contained in the report shall upon request be made available to the adult who is the subject of the report and to legal counsel for the adult.
• If it determines that there is a risk of harm to a person who makes a report under this section or to the adult who is the subject of the report, the county department of job and family services may redact the name and identifying information related to the person who made the report.
• The county department of job and family services shall be available to receive the written or oral report provided for in this section twenty-four hours a day and seven days a week.
• Abuse must be reported immediately.
• Reports must be made forthwith by telephone or in person and must be followed up with written reports, if requested by the department.
• The written or oral report is confidential and is not a public record.

Liability
• Timing not specified. Reports may be made orally or in writing.
• Timing requirements not specified in statute, simply states “as soon as possible”.
• Report can be oral or written.
